The State of Maharashtra. ... Respondent.

Vikas Shivarkar for the applicant.

S.S.Pednekar, APP for the State.

CORAM: V.C.DAGA, J.

DATED: 9th August 2007.

P.C.:

. Heard learned counsel for the applicant and learned A.P.P. for the State.

2. By this application, the applicant is seeking bail in connection with C.R.No.8/2007 registered with Yerwada Police Station for the offences punishable under sections 302, 143, 147, 148, 149 read with section 34 of Indian Penal Code.

3. The F.I.R. reveals that the applicant with other co-accused attacked on deceased Yogesh Uddhav Thakur with soda water bottles and pieces of slab and stones. The panchanama reveals that pieces of glass bottles and broken tiles were found on the spot. The post-mortem notes reveal that 23 injuries excluding fractures and several internal injuries were caused to the deceased, which show that the deceased was brutly beaten to death. Even one witness has also received four injuries.

4. The application for bail moved by the applicant before the Sessions Court being Criminal Bail Application No.719/2007 came to be dismissed by the Additional Sessions Judge, Pune vide his order dated 11th June, 2007.

5. Considering prima facie evidence and the manner in which the injuries were caused to the deceased, I am not inclined to grant bail in favour of the applicant. In the result, application is rejected.
